In Memoriam.

Jacob F. Wiegling served as Com-Clerk for the Village of Newedocia, Ohio, for a period of ten months - Commencing January 1934 and ending October of the same year. He was present at eight regular sessions of the Council the first in and the last October 1, 1934. Three weeks from that date Mr. Wiegling was breathing his last and his services to the village and to his family had been severed for all time. Mr. Wiegling was a modest but real gentleman.
The Council and other officials of the village have very pleasant memories of him in their association as public officers. They - The Council and other officials of the village wish to express their sympathy to those members of the family near and dear to him - especially to his wife Mrs.
Lelas Wiegling - who is experiencing the greatest disappointment of her life in the loss of a real husband - to the little son not realizing his great loss of a father to guide him in the formative years of his life. This places upon the Mother a double duty in the training of the boy - that of Father and Mother. Also the officials of the village wish to express their sympathy to the aged Mother and to the Brothers weeks from that date Mr. Wieringa was breathing his last and his services to the village and to his family had been severed for all time. Mr. Wieringa was a modest but real gentleman.
