FOREWORD

Dear Brethren and Sisters:—

We present to you the report of another year's work. In the report you will notice many changes. You will see that we have welcomed some little ones to our midst. A number of homes have been cheered by the advent of happy little faces. We rejoice with those to whose homes these little ones have come, and as churches we will endeavor to make their surroundings as happy and as Christian as we can.

We see that some have been called from our midst. Among these are some over whom the shadows of evening had been hovering, and others have been removed whose company and help we had hoped to enjoy for a number of years. We extend our heartiest sympathy to those that mourn the loss of these departed ones, and we pray that God may bless them in their hour of darkness.

Some have come to our midst from other churches. We welcome them; and we hope that they will feel that they are not only among us, but that they are of us.

The farming communities have had rather a hard year. Yet, in spite of this, we have room to be thankful. None of us have suffered the need of any of the necessities of life, and as churches we have nearly reached every goal that we set for ourselves.

We look to the future with hope. Every organization in the church functions. From the juniors up we are all active. Yet like Paul we cannot claim to have apprehended. We know that there are yet tasks to be done. But let us not be discouraged, rather let us forget the things that are behind, and stretch forward to the things that are before, "pressing on toward the goal, the high calling of God in Christ, Jesus."

On behalf of the Sessions,

Very sincerely yours,

WM. JONES, Pastor.
