

Annual Report of Salem and Zion
Presbyterian Churches
of Venedocia, Ohio

From

Jan. 1, 1949 to Dec. 31, 1949

FOREWORD

Another year has slipped into memory. What this year has meant to us as a Church family no one fully knows. There were the months of patient waiting for a pastor, the exciting weeks of preparing the manse, the joy of being welcomed into each others fellowship and the grand privilege of being workers together with Christ in his Church.

In this great work to which Christ has called us all of us are needed. We all share in the duties and responsibilities as members one with another. As we labor, we grow, through disciplining our lives according to the pattern of Christ. His life was not easy. It was a steep hill climb all the way to Calvary. The servant is not greater than his Lord, and for us who follow, the path of service is strewn with difficulty and hardship.

Working together with Christ will enlarge our perspective. It will broaden our point of view and enable us to see the world as God sees it. At the same time it will help us to see ourselves as He see us. A far more serious and sacrificial concern for the needs of others is the response that a candid sight of the world should produce.

The future of our Church rests with God. And the people who care supremely about what happens to others and are willing to place their lives and means unreservedly at God's disposal are the ones God will use in the future. The movements of God's Spirit are being seen in the lives of men and nations. May God forgive us for our failure to trust Him more and help us to launch forth with eager abandon to do His will in this great hour.

Sincerely,

William G. Chalmers
