

ANNUAL REPORT

of the

Salem Presbyterian Church

Venedocia, Ohio 45894

from

January 1, 1992 to December 31, 1992

Scott Myers, Pastor

TO THE CONGREGATION;

Members and Friends:

In 1992 our congregation faced and met many challenges, experienced frustration and success, shared sorrows and joys, and above all, served our Lord.

Thanks to everyone for their financial giving and for your prudent handling of the monies that were given.

Thanks to all the teachers in every class, organization, circle and program. Our Christian Education program is a vibrant part of our ministry.

The stream of newborn babies slowed a bit in 1992, but we still had a nice service of recognition for their parents. And we were all overjoyed at the special service to recognize wedding anniversaries in September.

Another fine St. David's Day celebration and Gymanfa Ganu inspired all who came. More young adults are coming to Gymanfa Ganu, which is a good sign.

The Trustees carried out some significant improvement projects on the church building and the manse. Their normal maintenance and repair work was again commendable.

The Women's Association and Music Committee took on and completed more important projects than I can name here. And I want to personally thank all the elders, with whom I work directly, for their service and dedication.

Now I want to turn to the year ahead of us. We must take steps to renew our congregational life. What does that mean, you are asking? In large part, you the members will decide what exactly it means. We must ask ourselves: What does Jesus Christ require of us as a congregation serving this village and the broader farming and town community? Please think about what you as individuals can do and what your class or organization or circle or board can do in these areas: activating more of our membership; increasing worship attendance; increasing our membership; serving our members and the community more effectively. As a farmer prepares the ground in the spring for planting, cultivating and harvesting, so must we create positive conditions for growth in our church. "Renewal in 1993-94" ought to be our watchword!

In closing, I want to thank you for your prayers and personal care for me as your minister and for Audrey and our three children. Personally it was a terrible year for us — filled with sorrow and loss and grief. Thank you for your love and comfort through it all.

Yours in Christ,
Reverend Scott W. Myers
