A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Friends:

It is with a real sense of pleasure that I write a brief foreword to another annual report of the Salem and Zion Congregations. These pages indicate in some measure what the church has done, wherein lie its interests, and where its various lines of service have run. The genuine interest shown in the work of the different organizations and departments of the church, and the fine spirit of cooperation that prevails among all members has been a source of joy to your pastor as he seeks to serve among you.

We are grateful for the generous support on the part of most of our members of the work of the church. Upon such the church depends for the maintenance of God's House in which we worship, the preaching of the Word, the training of our young people and children, and the support of the glorious missionary interests of our church. After all, it is not any unusually great sacrifice that we are called upon to make; neither do the many tasks we are called upon to perform appear very magnificent. It is rather the many little and seemingly unimportant things that we must faithfully and persistently work out if the church is to continue, and if the long arm of its influence is to stretch out across land and sea. And yet, what more glorious task can one imagine? The call at the beginning of another new church year is for all of us and each of us to come up to our share of the responsibility of the life of the church.

No year passes but that some homes are saddened as others go to increase the number of those whom we "have loved long since and lost awhile." The memory of those who passed to their reward this year again is sacred to us. In what better way could we honor their memory than by continuing to love and serve the church where they too, while with us, were pointed to a redeeming grace and made conscious of a redeeming presence?

With a deep sense of gratitude for God's goodness to us in the past, we look forward to a fruitful year in His vineyard.

In His service,

W. T. Jones.
